

Story of the wine:

Hannes Reeh's winery, nestled in Austria's Burgenland region within the Neusiedlersee, is known for its bold yet approachable wines. Taking over the family estate in 2007, Hannes brought a modern touch to the traditional methods established by his predecessors. The winery spans 300 hectares, with the warm, sunny climate ideal for cultivating a variety of grapes, especially Zweigelt, which has become the hallmark of the estate. Known for his minimalist winemaking style, Hannes focuses on creating authentic, high-quality wines that reflect both the terroir and his passion for innovation.

Varietals:

100% Zweigelt

Area:

Red gravel soils in the Neusiedlersee DAC, Austria

Ageing:

Conceived for drinking in its youth this Zweigelt is picked at optimum ripeness for balance of firm tannin, approachable acidity and ripe full-on fruit. All vinified in stainless steel

Descriptions for Wine List:

This fresh and easy-drinking Zweigelt from Hannes Reeh showcases the vibrant character of the Neusiedlersee region. On the nose, it presents aromas of ripe cherries and red berries, with a subtle hint of spice. On the palate, the wine is light and refreshing, offering juicy red fruit flavors balanced by soft tannins and lively acidity. Its approachable nature and smooth texture make it an ideal everyday wine, perfect for casual sipping or pairing with light dishes such as pasta, pizza, or grilled vegetables.

